Competition Format and Rules

Formato y reglas de la competencia / Format et règles de compétition

As of SAT 17 SEP 2018

Youth Olympic Competition Format

The Weightlifting competition at the Summer Youth Olympic Games Buenos Aires 2018 comprises six bodyweight categories for women, and six for men. The competition format for each category consists of a single phase (final), though it may be contested in multiple groups. The combined results of the competition produce the Youth Olympic Champion and the medal winners. Each competition consists of two parts: the Snatch and the Clean & Jerk, with generally a 10 minute break between the two. Each athlete may take three attempts at individually chosen weights in both the Snatch and the Clean & Jerk, and the best results achieved (in kilograms) are added to a total which determines the ranking. Each athlete is allowed one minute (or two minutes, if making consecutive attempts) between the calling of his name and the beginning of the attempt.

The rules of lifting and for the adjudication of attempts are the same for men and women.

The Youth Olympic competition is individual, and there is no official team classification.

Differences between the IWF Youth World Championships and the Summer Youth Olympic Games

The main difference is that in the IWF Youth World Championships, titles and medals are awarded also for the two individual lifts, the Snatch and the Clean & Jerk, while in the Youth Olympic classification, only the aggregate of these two (i.e. the total result) counts. At the IWF Youth World Championships, there are eight men's and eight women's bodyweight categories, whereas at the Summer Youth Olympic Games there are six men's and six women's bodyweight categories. Furthermore, at the IWF Youth World Championships, athletes score points for a team classification, whereas no team titles are awarded at the Summer Youth Olympic Games. The other important difference is that there are more participants at the IWF Youth World Championships. Finally, the age group at the IWF Youth World Championships is 13 -17, at the Summer Youth Olympic Games it is 15 -17.

Changes since the Summer Youth Olympic Games Nanjing 2014

Bodyweight category Women's 44kg has been added.

The tie break rule has changed: the actual bodyweight is no longer used to break ties. See below.

Sport Rules and Procedures

Each athlete has three attempts to make on both the Snatch and the Clean & Jerk, which can be on different weights.

The barbell is loaded progressively. The athlete requesting the lightest weight lifts first.

The weight of the barbell must always be increased by multiples of one kg increments.

One minute is allocated to each athlete between the calling of his name and the beginning of the attempt.

When an athlete attempts two lifts in succession, he is allowed two minutes before the succeeding attempt.

Three referees adjudicate each lift and pass their decision, whether accepted or not. The validity of the lift is decided by the majority of referees. Each decision made by the referees is immediately analysed by the Jury, and they can decide to reverse it. After this, the decision is final and irrevocable. The athlete with the highest total result will be declared the winner.

Calling Order

The following four factors listed in priority must be considered when calling the athletes:

1. The weight of the barbell (lightest weight first)
2. The number of the attempt (lowest number first)
3. The sequence/order of the previous attempt(s) (the athlete who lifted earliest is first)
4. The start number of the athlete (lowest first)

Tie Break Rules

The IWF rules define how to break ties if two athletes achieve the same total weight.

Penalties / Disqualification Rules

There are no penalties in the sport of Weightlifting and disqualification would only apply in case of violation to the rules.

Protests / Appeals

No protest or request for correction is accepted.
